

The Saint in Victoria, BC

From Saturday October 26 to Sunday November 3 our Saint will be visiting the Catholic Diocese of Victoria on the island of Vancouver, Canada, in the form of two first-class and precious relics from his Basilica in Padua, Italy. The St Andrew's Cathedral in Victoria, BC; the cathedral was dedicated on October 30, 1892, and has cultural links to Quebec relics will be accompanied by our editor, Friar Mario Conte. One of the relics, the Saint's Floating Rib, was venerated by Saint Pope John Paul II, by Sister Lucia of Fatima, and by then-Archbishop of Buenos Aires Jorge Bergoglio, now Pope Francis.
